If I start the app on Android 4.4, it works just fine, but if I go back to 4.4 it crashes everytime. It has a string resource and a DialogFragment that gets created on the first activity in the app. I've tried updating on 4.4 and 5.0, and this doesn't work. A: It sounds like a resource/string naming issue. Make sure that if you are using resources for a DialogFragment, you use the version starting with android, i.e. "android.R.string.cancel". You may have come to this post looking for an answer as to whether or not I am a Mason. Well let me first say: I am not! I have asked to join several lodges in the past and been denied membership. The moment one of those Masons tells you that they are a Mason because I don't know how to calculate a square and a compass, or whether or not the three men who fashioned the original Lodge tools truly saw the Light, or because I am a regular attendee at a non-Masonic funeral, I can't help but think that the Mason you are is that Masons' worst nightmare
